

SHORT NOTES

GRADE: 10

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

TITLE: MIJBIL THE OTTER

SUBMITTED BY: RUCHI JAIN

Introduction of the author:

Gavin Maxwell is the author of the chapter "Mijbil the Otter." He is known for his humorous and engaging writing style, as well as his love for animals. Maxwell had a pet dog, which he lost, and this event had a profound impact on his life.

Introduction of the story:

The story "Mijbil the Otter" revolves around Maxwell's journey of keeping an otter as a pet. After losing his beloved dog, he expresses his desire to have an otter as a companion. The story explores the relationship between a master and his pet, emphasizing the importance of being friendly and caring towards animals.

Theme of the chapter:

The theme of the chapter "Mijbil the Otter" is the bond between humans and animals. It highlights the challenges and joys of keeping an unconventional pet and the emotional connection that can develop between them.

The flow of the story is as follows:

1. After losing his beloved dog, the author expresses his desire to have an otter as a companion.
2. He embarks on a journey to find an otter and eventually acquires Mijbil, a young otter, from the Tigris marshes in Iraq.
3. The author describes his experiences and the humorous incidents that occur as he adjusts to life with an otter as his companion.

4. The primary incidents of the story took place during the journey from Iraq to London via flight. Mijbil created a scene in the plane and almost scared everyone with his mischievous actions. Despite the issues with Mijbil in the plane, a generous air hostess allowed the author to keep Mijbil with him and helped him further to travel with the otter.
5. The author outlines that Mijbil was a mischievous and playful creature who loved to swim and play with pebbles.
6. The author also describes the challenges of keeping an unconventional pet, including the difficulty of finding suitable food and the need to provide a suitable environment for the otter.
7. The story highlights the bond that forms between the author and Mijbil, showcasing the joys and challenges of their relationship.
8. The story concludes with the author reflecting on the special connection he has developed with Mijbil and the importance of treating animals with kindness and forming meaningful relationships with them.

Conclusion of the chapter:

The chapter "Mijbil the Otter" concludes with Maxwell reflecting on the special connection he has developed with his otter pet. It leaves the readers with a message of the importance of treating animals with kindness and forming meaningful relationships with them. Overall, "Mijbil the Otter" is a heartwarming and humorous story that emphasizes the importance of treating animals with kindness and forming meaningful relationships with them. The story showcases the unique bond that can form between humans and animals and the joys and challenges of keeping an unconventional pet.